

Workshop for medical physicists in support of Nuclear or Radiological Emergency situations 22-26 June 2015

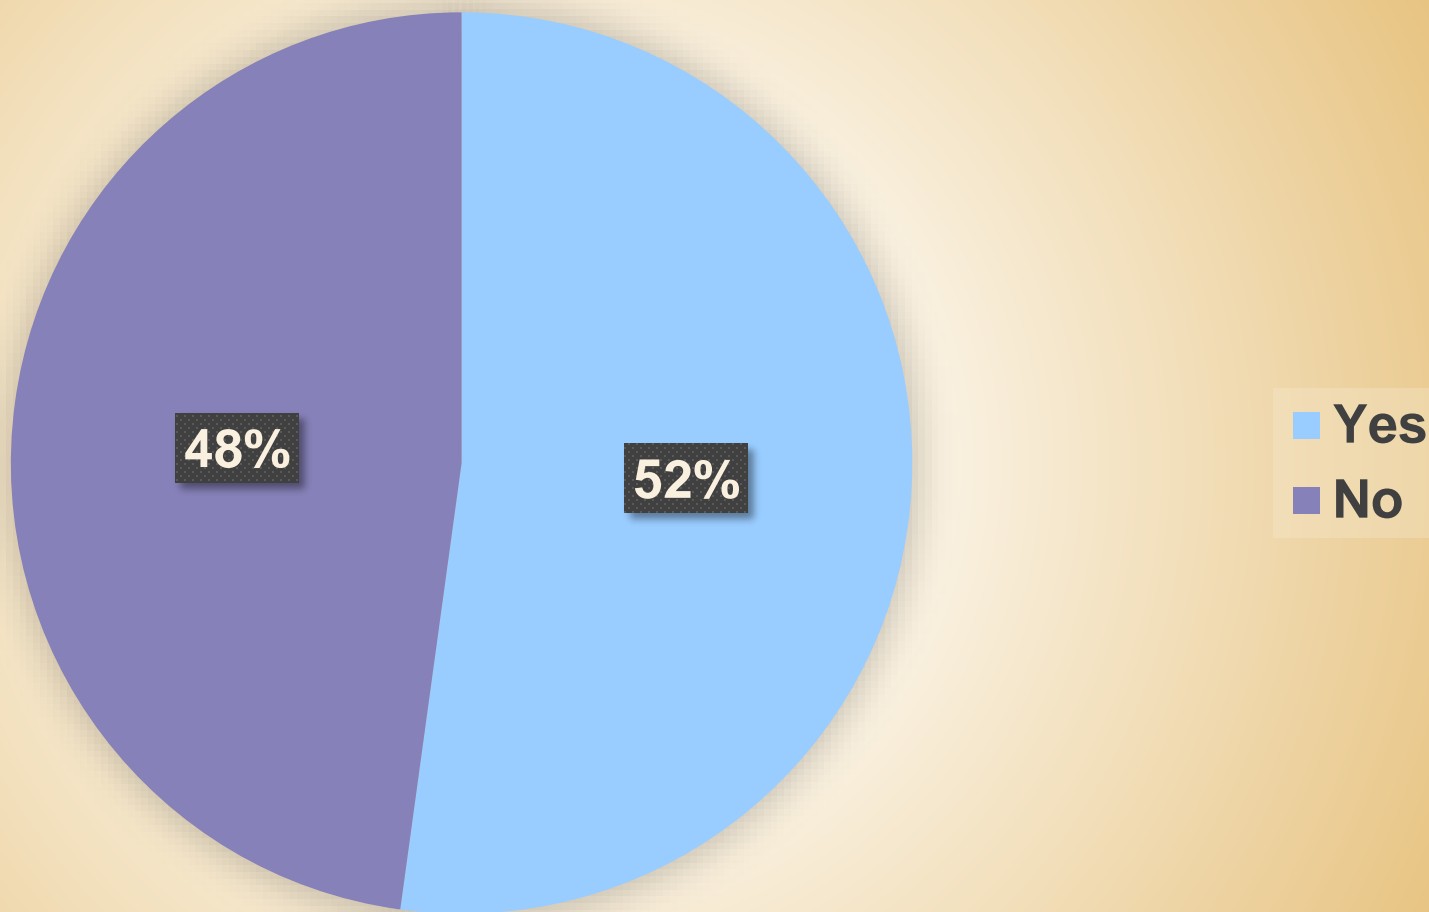

Participant Background Information
Pre-Workshop Survey Results

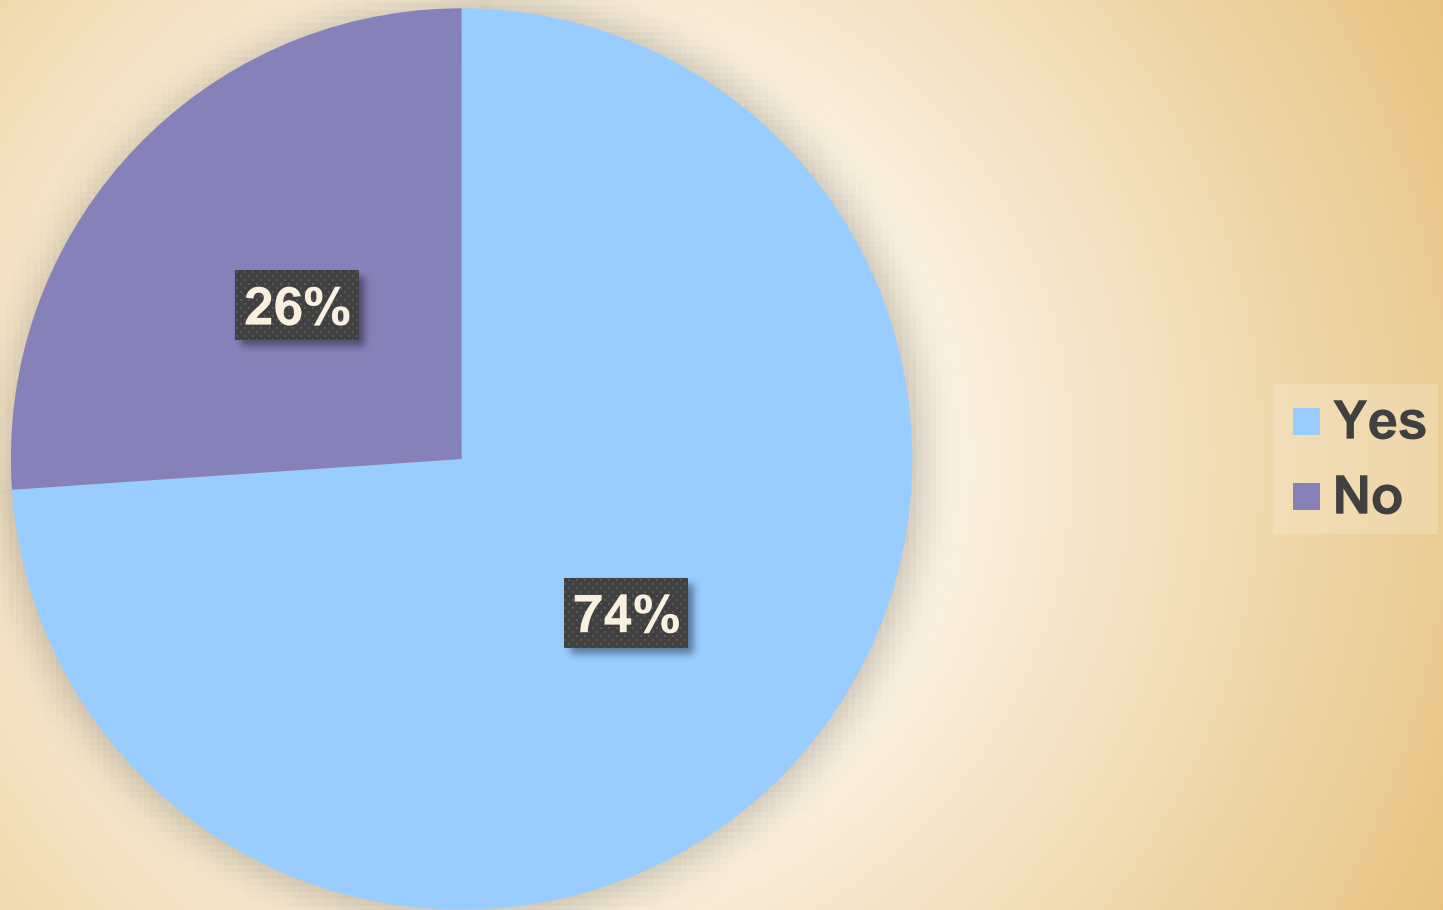

1. Did you take any courses related to radiological and/or nuclear emergencies during your formal education in medical physics?

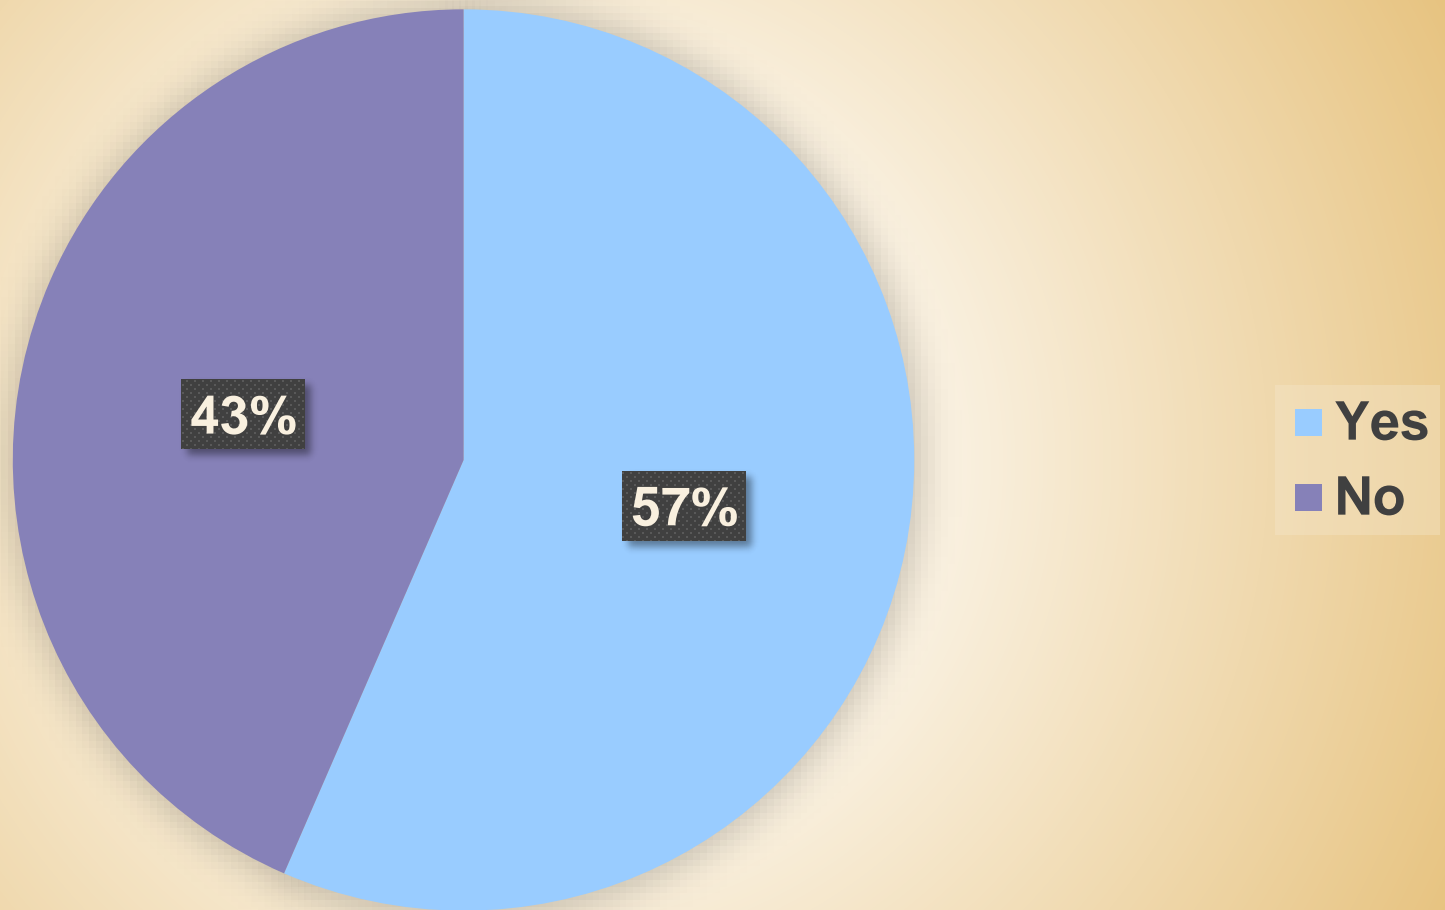

2. After you have completed your formal education, did you participate in any training courses/workshops related to radiological and/or nuclear emergencies?

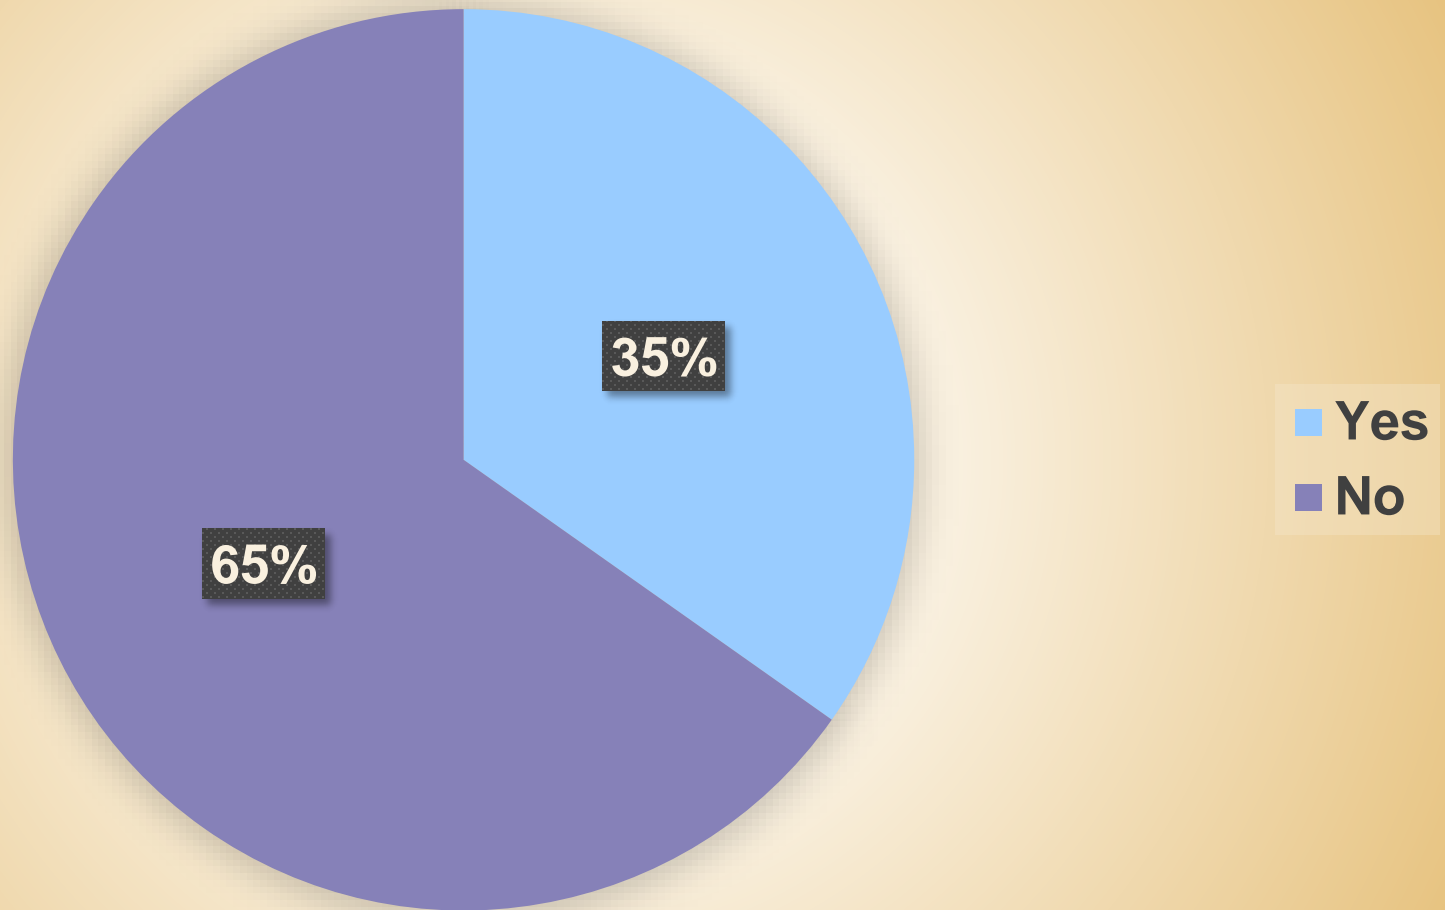

3. Are you familiar with the radiation protection regulations in your country specifically referring to "emergency preparedness"?

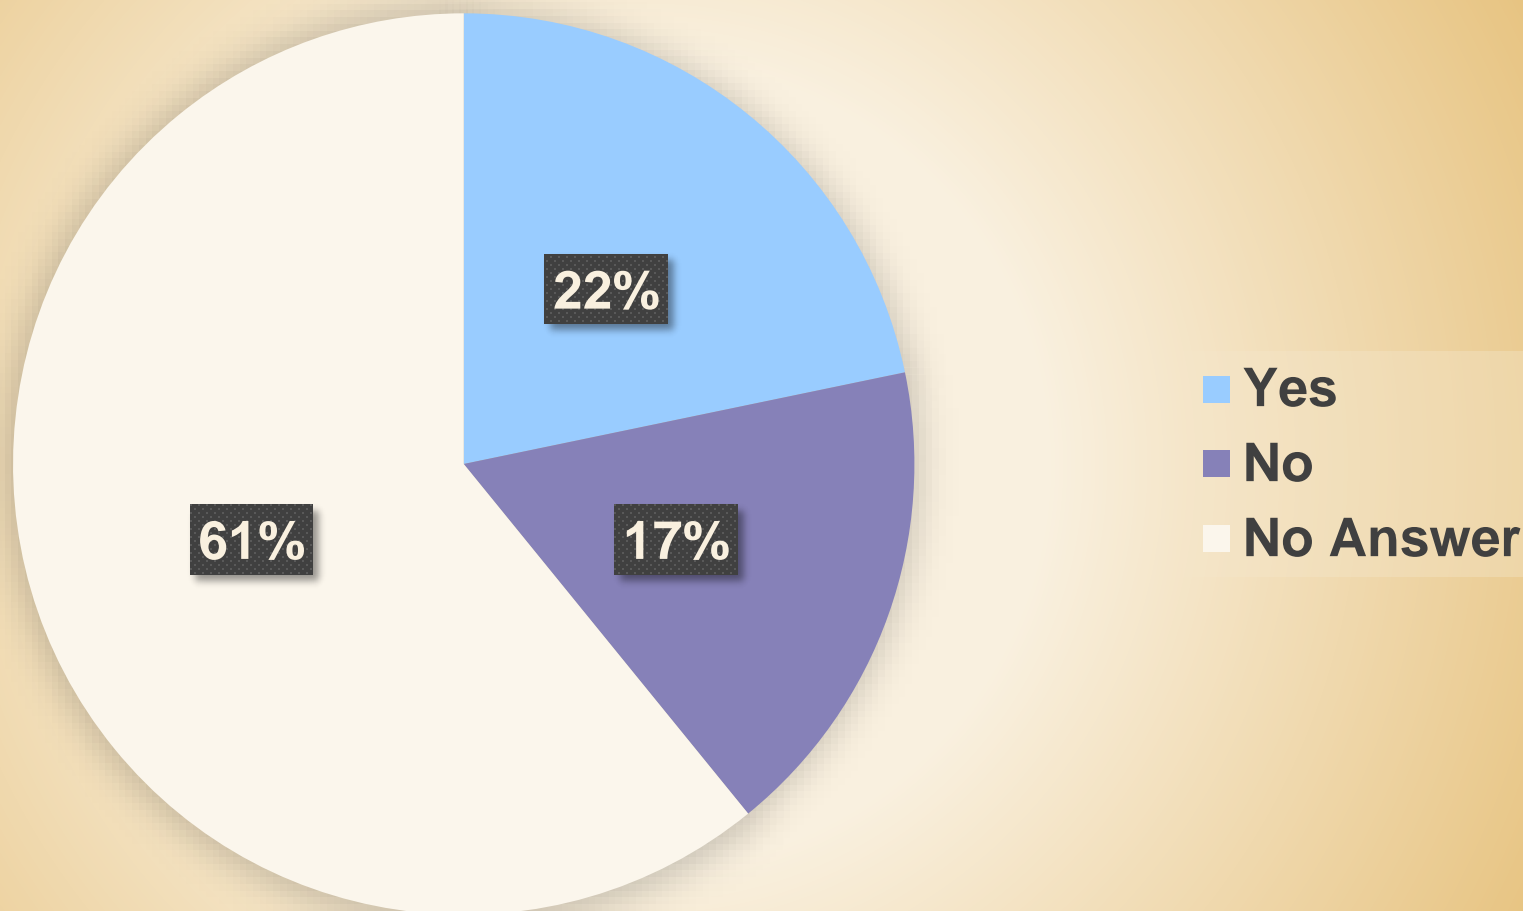

4. Are you currently involved in any radiological emergency preparedness planning for the hospital where you are working?

5. Are you currently involved in any radiological and/or nuclear emergency preparedness planning in your country?

6. If you have replied “no” to question 4 above, will you be involved in the near future in any radiological and/or nuclear emergency preparedness planning in your country?

7. Will you be involved in education and training of health professionals in support to radiological and/or nuclear emergency preparedness?

